MARCH 20. 1739,40. NUMB. 588.

The Pennſylvania GAZETTE.

Containing the freſheſt Advices Foreign and Domeſtick.

GIBRALTAR, December 1. O. S. 1739.

ADMIRAL Haddock's Squadron has been obliged to put in here on Account of the ſtormy Weather. Count Clavijo's Squadron is ſtill at Cadiz. The Spaniards make no more Movements in this Neighbourhood The Troops which marched out of their Quarters, and were ſaid to be advancing towards this Place, have been diſtributed in ſeveral Places of Andaluſia. Proviſions are in great Plenty here, for beſides what comes from England, we receive great Quantities from the Coaſt of Africa.

Madrid, Dec. 12. O. S. In purſuance of the vigorous Reſolutions which the King has form'd to proſecute the War againſt Great-Britain, his Majeſty has made a Promotion of 25 Lieutenant-Generals and 35 Major Generals, which was declar'd at Court on the 8th Inſtant, that being his Majeſty's Birth Day, when he enter'd into the 57th Year of his Age. The Nobility has offer'd to lend the King 14 Millions of Crowns upon certain Terms, which 'tis believ'd will be accepted. As for the Neutrality which is obſerv'd by the Court of France at this Juncture, it does not ſeem to give ſo much Diſtaſte to this Court as it did at firſt, becauſe 'tis to be hop'd, that other Powers will thereby be influenc'd to maintain the ſame Neutrality.

Verſailles, Dec. 13. O. S. The Opinion prevails more and more, that our Court will obſerve an exact Neutrality in the preſent Juncture; and we have Reaſon indeed to believe that Spain wiſhes it may continue Neuter, that the War may not become general, and that the King of the two Sicilies may not run the Hazard of being involv'd in it, and of being attack'd in his Italian Dominions.

Petersburgh, Dec. 15. O. S. The Empreſs holds frequent Councils on the Affairs of the preſent Conjuncture, and particularly on the Meaſures to be taken for preſerving the publick Tranquility, and making Trade flouriſh. The Seraskier of Oczakow, the Baſhaw of Choczim, and the other Turkiſh Priſoners here, enjoy entire Liberty at preſent; they paſs away the Time in viewing the Curioſities of this City and neighbouring Places, and reckon to ſet out for Conſtantinople as ſoon as they receive the neceſſary Remittances from Bender to pay their Debts and defray the Expences of their Journey. The principal Merchants of this City, Moſcow and Archangel, begin to form themſelves into Companies, in order to re-eſtabliſh their Trade with Turky and Tartary.

Madrid, Dec. 18. The King has iſſued an Order, forbidding under ſevere Penalties, the ſending out any Corn from any of the Spaniſh Provinces, on any Pretence whatſoever.

We hear from Cadiz, that the Squadron, under Admiral Clavijo lay yet in that Bay, and had Orders to remain there 'till the Britiſh Squadron was ſailed from the Coaſt.

Paris, Dec. 25. O. S. The King of Spain's Prohibition of the Importation of Goods of the Growth or Manufacture of Great Britain, has given great Pleaſure to the Merchants of this City, and the whole Kingdom. Our Manufactures have been introduc'd into Spain ever ſince the Beginning of this Century, but thoſe of England have all along had the Preference; but 'tis now computed that we ſhall ſupplant them every where, and that if the War betwixt Spain and England continues but a Couple of Years, we alone ſhall furniſh Spain with the Woollen Cloth, Stuffs, Stockings Hats, and other Merchandiſe, that the Spaniards formerly took from England; which will be a vaſt Profit to France.

Madrid, Dec. 28. Several of our Troops are filed off towards the Frontiers of Portugal, and we hear from Malaga, that 50000 Men are aſſembling there.

'Tis ſaid, the late Duke of Ormond is expected here very ſoon from Avignon, in order to enter into the Service of his Catholick Majeſty.

Dantzick, Dec. 28. O. S. Our Letters from Petersburgh confirm, that the Arrival of the Marquis de la Chetardie has given great Satisfaction to the Court: The great Marks of Diſtinction with which that Miniſter has been received are look'd upon as a good Omen of the Succeſs of his Negotiations; and it is given out on this Occaſion, that the King of France has determin'd to give her Czariſh Majeſty the Title of Autocatrix of all the Ruſſians; that a Treaty of Commerce will be propos'd between the two Nations; that Ruſſia will be invited to remain neuter in certain Caſes where the Part ſhe might take would theaten the Tranquility of Europe; (France means her own Tranquility, if we are not much miſtaken) and that his moſt Chriſtian Majeſty will make uſe of all his Credit and good Offices to eſtabliſh firmly the Peace between the ſaid Court, Sweden, Poland, and the Grand Seignior.

LONDON, Jan. 1. By a private Letter from Paris, we are adviſed, that the King of Spain has, in a repeated Manner, cauſed the ſtrongeſt Inſtances to be made to the Court of France, to engage it to grant him Succours in his War with Great Britain. The laſt Courier which the Marquis de la Mina received from Madrid, brought him Orders to declare to the moſt Chriſtian King and his Miniſters, "That his Catholick Majeſty depended upon the Promiſe of being ſeconded and ſupported by his moſt Chriſtian Majeſty, in caſe of a War with Great Britain, and having ſuffered himſelf to be conducted by the Councils of the Court of France, had ſteadily refuſed to hearken to the unreaſonable Pretenſions of the Engliſh in regard to the Navigation to the Weſt-Indies: That the Court of Great-Britain had made this Refuſal a Pretext for declaring War againſt his Catholick Majeſty, who thereupon had Reaſon to expect, that the Court of France, would, conformable to its Engagements and its neareſt Intereſt, eſpecially after ſeeing the the unſpeakable Eagerneſs of the Britiſh Nation to purſue this War with all its Might, not in the leaſt heſitate openly to take the Part of Spain, who, if ſhe be left to act alone in this Conteſt, muſt indiſputably be overcome by, and ſuffer much from the formidable Armament of Great Britain: It was even evident, that the Engliſh, upon its being reported that France would be neuter in this Quarrel, immediately became much leſs tractable than whilſt they were under ſtronger Apprehenſions of his moſt Chriſtian Majeſty's openly taking the Part of Spain, &c." This is the Subſtance of the laſt Declaration of the Marquis de la Mina, in order to determine the Court of France to join with that of Spain. He expreſſed at the ſame time, the Apprehenſions he was under of the Engliſh attempting to make themſelves Maſters of the Galleons, and of ſome of the Poſſeſſions of his Catholick Majeſty in America. The Anſwer given by Cardinal de Fleury to this Declaration was, its ſaid, not altogether agreeable to the Ambaſſador, being to the following Purpoſe. "That the moſt Chriſtian King would not permit the Engliſh to ſeize upon the Galleons, or make any Conqueſts in the Weſt Indies, at the Expence of Spain; but for the preſent declined joining with Spain for ſeveral weighty Reaſons; one was, that his moſt Chriſtian Majeſty was endeavouring to engage the States General to offer, in Concert with him, their Mediation to Great Britain for re-eſtabliſhing Peace, which Offer would indiſputably be rejected by the Engliſh, if France had actually taken Part in the War, or even had ſeemed to do ſo: That beſides, the King could not enter into this War in favour of Spain, without immediately ſeeing the States-General declare themſelves for Great Britain, and without rouſing up ſeveral other Powers, and, in ſhort, cauſing an entire Change in the preſent Syſtem of Affairs in Europe." Nevertheleſs, as France talks of augmenting her Forces by Land and Sea, many People are of Opinion, that her real Deſign is to aſſiſt Spain, whatever her Pretences may be.

January 3. An Extract of a Letter, dated the 4th Inſtant, from Paris.

We are inform'd that Great Britain ſtill rejects all Propoſitions of Peace, and ſeems to deſpiſe Mediations, and every Method of Accomodation which has been propoſed to her; for which Reaſon our Court cauſes, with the utmoſt Diligence, ſuch a Diſpoſition to be made in our Ports, as may ſhew the Engliſh what they have to expect, if they puſh Things too far againſt Spain; beſides, the French Nation is greatly piqued, at the Provocations given it by the Engliſh, to openly take Part with Spain.

Jan. 5. The Perſons who have contracted for making the Cloaths for the ſix Regiments of Marines, have received Orders to get them ready with all Expedition.

By Letters from Ireland we hear, that the Scheme propoſed there for eſtabliſhing the Cambrick Manufacture in that Kingdom meets with all imaginable Succeſs, as well from the Parliament as from private Perſons: The Subſcription intended, of 30,000l. is already got up to 24,200l. by the Generoſity of many Perſons of Quality and Diſtinction in England as well as in Ireland; who are well convinced of the infinite Service it muſt be to both Kingdoms.

Hague, Jan. 6. The States are to meet To-morrow, to come to a final Reſolution, touching the Part they intend to accept in the preſent Affairs between Great Britain and Spain.

Edinburgh, Jan. 8. Yeſterday one of the moſt melancholy Accidents happened near Kirkaldy, that perhaps has been heard of in this Country, and which has turned the Mirth and good Humour that generally prevails at this Seaſon, into an univerſal Sorrow in that Place. 'Tis well known that the firſt Monday of the Year is always obſerved with uncommon Gaiety and Mirth, and in Conſequence becomes a Holy-Day to Apprentices and Servants, fourteen of which belonging to Path-head, a little Village adjacent to Kirkaldy, having got a little Money, went to divert themſelves with a common Amuſement among Boys, by throwing up Thiſtles or Crowns: The Place they choſe was what we call a Cave, or a large Hollow below a rocky Eminence; as they were thus innocently amuſing themſelves, the Rock tumbled down and cruſh'd them to pieces. ---- 'Tis ſcarce poſſible to form an Idea of the ghaſtly Sight which their mangled Bodies exhibited.--- Parents could not diſtinguiſh the Corpſes of their own Children.---- The Parts of ſome who were cloſe together when the Rock fell, are ſo mixed, that there is no Diſtinction, and the Carnage is the moſt diſmal that can be imagined. ---- The Bodies of only Eleven are yet digg'd up. ---- One eſcap'd by his being at a greater Diſtance from the Rock, but his Leg is broke in a vaſt Number of Places. ---- This fatal Cataſtrophe cauſes an extraordinary Grief, eſpecially as ſome Parents have loſt two, others all their Children.

London, Jan. 8. We hear, that the Right Hon. the Lord Cathcart, one of the Sixteen Peers for North Britain, is appointed General of the 8000 Soldiers to be ſent to the Spaniſh Weſt Indies.

Rear-Admiral Balchen is to command the Men of War and Tranſports, deſigned for a ſudden Expedition.

The Regiments to be embark'd for that Purpoſe are ſaid to be the Lord James Cavendiſh's, Brigadier Guiſe's, Col. Blakeney's, Col. Duccurrie's, Brigadier Harriſon's, Col. Bland's, and the Earl of Rothes's, the laſt at Gibraltar.

A few Days ſince a Perſon of great Diſtinction, a Native of Corſica, arrived here from Leghorn, and is lodg'd at a Houſe in Bennet-ſtreet, St. James's.

The Princeſs Sherbatoff, Spouſe to the Ruſſian Miniſter Plenipotentiary, appears at Court in a Ruſſian Habit, viz. a Robe of Ermine and Furr, with a ſable Tippet, being the Winter Dreſs of that Country.

Yeſterday near 200 Maſters and Owners of Ships attended at the Navy-Office, to be employ'd as Tranſports in his Majeſty's Service, and deliver'd to the Commiſſioners Particulars of the ſeveral Ships; but there was nothing farther done.

Yeſterday an Account came that the Julian, ---- bound from Sicily to Lisbon, was taken by the Spaniards, and carried into Carthagena.

The known Damage done on the River Thames between the Medway and London-Bridge by the preſent rigorous Seaſon, is at a moderate Computation thought to be above 100,000 l. Sterl. beſides the Numbers of Perſons who have loſt their Lives.

Yeſterday his Royal Highneſs the Duke Scated on the Canal in St. James's Park for ſome time.

Jan. 10. The St. Joſeph Prize is arrived at Long Reach. She was taken, it ſeems going into the Bay of Cadiz, with her Colours flying; and being firſt boarded by the Lieutenant of his Majeſty's Ship the Canterbury, he immediately went into the Cabin, and ſeiz'd all the Papers; whilſt this was doing, the Cheſter Man of War came up, and the Lieutenant of this Ship went on board and cut down the Colours; till that be done, it's ſaid a Ship is not deem'd to be taken, ſo that there is a Diſpute which of them has a Right to the ſaid Prize. There has been 500 Tons of Goods taken out of her. She drew at firſt 22 Feet of Water, and now 18, and when unloaded 15 Feet.

The Royal Anne, and the Royal George, Two Firſt Rates of 100 Guns each; the Prince, Neptune, and Blenheim, of 90 Guns each; the Cambridge, and Torbay, of 80 Guns each; the Bredah, Captain, Eſſex, and Monmouth, of 70 Guns each; the Dreadnought, Exeter, Medway, Nottingham, Rupert, and and Swallow, of 60 Guns each; the Antelope, Dartmouth, Guernsey, Leopard, and Nonsuch, of 50 Guns each; the Dover, Gosport, and Hastings, of 40 Guns each; the Experiment, Fox, Lyme, Rose, Scarborough, and Lively, of 20 Guns each, are order'd to be rebuilt.

By Orders from the Board of Ordinance they are hard at Work in his Majesty's Yard at Woolwich, in making 1000 Wheel-barrows, such as are us'd by an Army in making Intrenchments.

We hear, that the Spanish Merchants throughout the Sea-Ports of Spain have petitioned his Catholick Majesty for admitting the Manufactures, &c. of England to be brought them in Dutch, French, and other Vessels.

Jan. 17. Tuesday the Soldier that was unhappily drowned in crossing the River on the Ice on Sunday last, was taken up at Westminster, with all his Accoutrements, his Firelock in particular being fast clinch'd in his Hand.

Which occasioned the following Lines.

A Soldier, late, of Britain's hardy Brood,
Provok'd the Dangers of the frozen Flood,
And, where his Valour now no more could save,
Grim Death assail'd him on the midway Wave.
Hither! and arm'd! what Boldness! what Disdain
Of this dread Scene where Fate and Winter reign!
Yield, yield those Arms, that Courage I'll dismay;
So spoke the stern Destroyer o'er his Prey.
But him the sterner Veteran defy'd,
And, grasping hard his Weapon, thus reply'd:
Know Tyrant, know, tho' I my Life resign,
My Honour and my Arms shall still be mine.
And by the Sequel plainly prov'd it true,
That Death may kill the Brave, but can't subdue.

PHILADELPHIA.

The News of the taking of Porto Bello is confirm'd from all Parts, but the Accounts of the Action are so various, that we chuse not to insert any of them, and wait for one that may be depended on.

Tuesday last the Mill commonly called the Governor's Mill, near this Town, took Fire (as it's thought, by the Wadding of Guns fired at wild Pidgeons) and was burnt down to the Ground.

We hear from the Jerseys, that John Eves, who used the Philadelphia Market, went one Day last Week to visit a sick Neighbour, and returning home in the Evening, which was dark and stormy, he lost his Way as is supposed, and was found dead the next Morning in a Swamp; his Head was in some Water, and the Bridle of his Horse remain'd over his Arm.

And from Mount-Holly we hear, that last Week a young Lad who had been shooting Pigeons, hanging a Parcel of them over the Barrel of his Gun, they slipt down to the Trigger, which was without Guard, and discharg'd the Piece against his Breast,, and kill'd him on the Spot.

We hear that the Rev. Mr. WHITEFIELD designs (God willing) to be here in May next; he proposes to come by Sea, and to land at Lewes-Town.
